

IN FULL BLOOM

Step into wedded bliss in a gown that marries romance with sophistication.

Our bride is the picture of chic in this ballet-inspired drop-waist taffeta gown; Lavish embroidery adds texture above; a full skirt releases in a pretty froth at the hip. Finishing the look in high style, a blush-pink grosgrain ribbon sash, adorned with an attached organza-petaled corsage. Gown, about $1,200, and sash, about $78, by White by Vera Wang; davidsbridal.com. Amethyst earrings by Tacori. Bracelet by Carolee. Engagement ring and wedding band by Natacha Langerman. Bouquet of lush lavender sweet pea and bold royal purple anemones with lemon leaf by ZAK events; call 212-249-4000 or go to zakevents.com for information.

“DANCE THE NIGHT AWAY IN THIS DREAM OF A DRESS”

BEAUTY NOTE

► Steal the spotlight with this naturally glamorous look. To impart a healthy glow, we love (1) Nars Blush in Orgasm, a classic glowifier that works on all skin tones. Try a light dusting across tops of cheekbones for a hint of shimmer; add more for a stronger pop of color on apples of cheeks. Be bright-eyed with (2) Natura Bissé The Cure Sheer Eye, a color-enhanced cream that instantly diminishes tiny lines and errant shadows while providing the skin with an even, radiant and youthful appearance. Then add a rosy, radiant finish with (3) MAC Eye Shadow in Da Bling. Pink eyeshadow can look intimidating in its packaging, but when done right it is stunning. Try a halo of Da Bling shadow around eyes to make the whites look even brighter! Finish with (4) Dior Addict Crystal Gloss in Sweet Rose for standout shine.
